From the DIRECTOR'S DESK ..

Mr. ROHIT CHAPRANA

RC7 is a group of aspiring people. As the Director of RC7 and the leader, I am always here for the support of my team members at every level, our business associates, vendors and for our esteemed clients. From the beginning, we have come far and still have a long way to go. While maintaining a core team to look after current business operations, we also have a team to plan projects for the future. I believe in planning for the future so that we may grow and take along with us all our stakeholders on the high road of prosperity.

I am grateful for everyone's support and promise all our stakeholders and that means employees too that we shall always maintain our positive outlook and approach to life and business. As the director, I consider it my duty to ensure physical and holistic health of people and the company. Healthy people, healthy community and healthy thought help in growth and happy lifestyle for our people. Happy people can do much more for themselves, the company and the country.

housekeeping

RC7 Security Services provides manned security personnel for mega events and for infrastructure where it is necessary to have guardsmen on the spot. We have a large pool of security guards drawn from the public and from the ex-serviceman. They are well trained and vetted. Unlike other security services, we have huge resources and can provide any number of personnel at short notice. Further, we have coherence and coordination that leads to very well organized professional security arrangements of the highest caliber. We take care of events like sports tournament fairs and exhibitions. We also take care of routine and long term security for large commercial complexes, educational institutions, industries and premium residential areas.
